Marshall to hold dual roles of CAO and Fire Chief

Longtime Fire Chief Brent Marshall has been named new Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) of the Town of Halton Hills.

"Brent has a long record of success and service to the community. I know I speak for Council when I say that we are excited that he will be leading the Town during an exciting period for our community. We have enjoyed a strong working relationship and I look forward to continuing it," said Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette.

He succeeds David Smith, who resigned last week.

Marshall will also continue to hold the position of Town Fire Chief, a position he has held since 2007.

A life-long resident of Acton, Marshall has served as Town Fire Chief since 2007, as well as Deputy CAO since last year. In addition to a 45-year career as a firefighter, Marshall has enjoyed a successful and distinguished career in municipal government in a variety of progressive public works and administration roles, culminating as the CAO of Halton Region.

"It truly is an honour to be named CAO of my hometown," said Marshall. "These are exciting and interesting times for our community. The planning for Vision Georgetown, local traffic issues and the ongoing debate over the Hidden Quarry and CN Intermodal, are a few of the major
