PAN-TASTIC WIN: Adding a piece of hardware to an already impressive collection of international medals, Georgetown's Shawn Hill picked up another Pan Am Games baseball gold Sunday night in Ajax. Team Canada edged the U.S. 7-6 in the 10th inning of the gold medal matchup, a rematch of the 2011 Pan Am final played in Mexico in which the Canadians emerged victorious in a 2-1 decision. The 34-year-old Hill, a right-handed starting pitcher, made one appearance for the home side during the tournament and was superb in last Tuesday's 3-1 round-robin win over Cuba, in which the sinkerballer tossed six scoreless innings, allowing just three hits and a walk to the eventual bronze medalists. It was reported that Hill might start the gold-medal game, but manager Ernie Whitt opted for hard-throwing left-hander Jeff Francis. Above, Premier Kathleen Wynne congratulates Hill on the victory.

an exception to the rules.

The outlet mall on Steeles Ave. at Trafalgar Road was granted a tourism exemption from the Retail Business Holidays Act by Halton Regional Council at its meeting last week. This means it will be open for shoppers an extra eight days per year, excluding Christmas Day. The exemption was also recently endorsed by Halton Hills Council.

A public meeting on the topic was held earlier this month by the Region's administration
