Three-year-old Brady Tacoma had a blast at the Dominion Gardens Park splash pad Monday. The Dominion Gardens Park splash pad opened in 2009 and offers a range of flower-inspired water play features. Today and Friday are expected to be only slightly cooler with the mercury hitting 30 C on Thursday and 29 C on Friday.

Halton Hills had its first heat alert last week but walking to an outdoor public pool with friends is not an option for Karen Kirtz's 13-year-old daughter and other teens in Georgetown.

The mother of a toddler and a teenager says she doesn't understand why town officials have not replaced or rebuilt the Dick Licata Memorial Swimming Pool that was closed about 10 years ago.

"I would like to see an outdoor swimming pool. It seems weird to go to an indoor pool on a hot summer day and not enjoy the weather," Kirtz says. "For the older kids, splash pads aren't good. What are teenagers supposed to do in this town? We don't have a movie theatre
