

O'Quinn known as a man with a big heart

"He was a real character, an honest, huge-hearted person with a sense of justice and fairness, (although) not exactly punctual," his mother Jo-Anne chuckled through tears Tuesday in a phone interview.

"Kyle was born late in the evening and that should have been my first indication that he was going to be a night owl. He liked to stay up watching TV shows and just hanging out with family and friends."

O'Quinn played elite-level youth hockey and was also an avid golfer and dancer who collected and shared witty quotes and clever snippets through social media. He spent many weekends with his relatives in Sudbury or at his father Randy's residence in Wasaga Beach and generally loved the outdoors.

"One of his other dreams was that he was going to get his own boat some day," his mother recalled.

"He couldn't sit still for long. He loved just being on the go, but if you put him in a boat with a fishing rod, he became quiet and would just stay there."

Kyle is the son of Jo-Anne (Jack) O'Quinn-Kallio and Randy (Brenda) O'Quinn, brother of Kaslyn Kallio, Laurie (Giustino) DiFonzo, Patty (Brad) Halls and Michelle (Patrick) Cerveira.

"I remember you taught me how important family is and to appreciate everything I have.

I can never thank you enough for everything. You meant the world to us in another time. You will forever be in our hearts and we will always miss you," stated an anonymous post on the J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home website.

Visitation will take place Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. at J.S. Jones & Son and a funeral service will take place Friday in the chapel at 11 a.m.
