GASCHO, Courtney

In memory of our precious daughter who died fifteen very long years ago on July 31, 2000

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.

We think of you in silence, we often speak your name.

All we have are memories, and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake, with which we will never part.

God has you in His keeping, we have you in our hearts.

A million times we've wanted you.

A million times we cried.

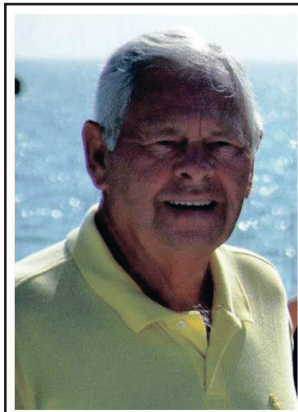

If love could have saved you, you never would have died.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

But you didn't go alone,

For a part of us went with you... the day God called you Home.

~ Loved and missed more than words can describe by dad, mom and Shane.

MIKE LEE

September 29th, 1941 - July 30th, 2014

One year has passed, sometimes so very fast and other times so very slow but each and every day remembering the kind, gentle, strong man that we all loved in different ways: husband, father, grandfather and dear friend.

Our lives have always been intertwined with the love of water, beaches and shells, a favourite pastime, so below, my British Luv this verse says it all.

*The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains...
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.*

And that is our memories, all different and all so very precious.

Love you like the waves upon the shore, never ending.....

May the winds of heaven blow gently,
And whisper in your ear
That I still love and miss you,
Always wishing you were here.

Every day I think of you,
I miss you more and more
Just wishing I could see you,
Come walking through the door.

Time has not healed my heartache
Or stopped my falling tears
I cherish still the memory
Of the Wife I loved so dear

"A Luv you - and I you"
