Acclaimed Canadian author coming for One Book One Halton Hills book club

Celebrated Canadian author, Carrie Snyder, will be speaking at the John Elliott Theatre at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 30 as part of the Library's One Book, One Halton Hills program.

Snyder's popularly acclaimed novel, Girl Runner, was chosen as the 2015 One Book, One Halton Hills selection.

Since its announcement in June as the 2015 One Book selection, Halton Hills residents have been reading this historical fiction novel described as "an exquisitely crafted, deeply imagined novel...that unfolds with the surefootedness of an elite runner" by New York Times bestselling author and One Book, One Halton Hills 2014 author, Cathy Marie Buchanan.

"We're so excited to have Ms. Snyder coming to Halton Hills," said Beverley King, Adult Services Librarian and Chair of the One Book Committee. "Not only is she an accomplished writer but also is an interesting speaker. It should make for an entertaining evening."

Carrie Snyder's Girl Runner has garnered rave reviews and has been showered with special attention. It was selected as a Finalist for the Rogers' Writers Trust Award in Fiction, was featured in the Globe and Mail's Top 10 Fall Reading List (2014) and has achieved international acclaim with reviews in The Independent (U.K.), The Daily Mail (U.K.), Publishers Weekly (U.S.), National Post (CAN), Chatelaine Magazine (CAN).

A book sale and signing will follow Snyder's presentation.

Tickets for the evening are $10 and are available at the John Elliott Theatre box office.

This event has been made possible by the generous sponsorship of the Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library.

Bob Rae talk on Oct. 1 sold out

Halton Hills Public Library presents former Ontario Premier Bob Rae to discuss themes from his new book What's Happened to Politics?

This Globe and Mail bestseller examines the current Canadian political framework and touches on everything from polling to issues of social justice to the way in which political parties package their candidates.

This speaking engagement will be held on Thursday, Oct. 1, 3:30 p.m. at the Georgetown branch of the Halton Hills Public Library.

A question and answer period will follow his presentation. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Free tickets which were made available through the Library website and eNewsletter are now completely sold out.
