PUTTING THEIR MONEY WHERE MOUTHGUARDS ARE: The staff at Dentistry on Sinclair held a clinic for local youths who require mouthguards for their sport of choice and in just a few hours of fitting, $1,280 was raised and donated to the Georgetown Bread Basket food bank. Twenty dollars from each mouth guard sold was contributed to the Bread Basket. Dentistry on Sinclair's office manager Lisa Preza said that it was the first time that the clinic has been held and plans are already in the works for another one next year. Pictured above, Jacqui Gomez, the Georgetown Bread Basket's director of marketing and media (front right), accepts a cheque worth $1,280 from Dentistry on Sinclair's office manager Lisa Preza after a charity sports mouth guard clinic was held recently. Also in the photo (from left) are: Hygienist Brenda Kuipers, dental assistant Niki Daigle, dentists Michael Hutter, Denis Beauchesne, dental assistants Renee Vanderleest, Brenda McDowell, Carole Kidd.
