DOUGLAS, Audrey

The Lookman family is sad to announce the passing of our very special "Auntie" Audrey Douglas, in her 95th year, at Mountainview Residence, Georgetown. Auntie, will be missed by Gord and Marion, Stephen, Mackenzie and Audrey Jr (Russell). Audrey was a longtime employee of Nelson's Publishing. She was a fanatical supporter of her Toronto sports teams "Go Leafs Go!" She never sat down without picking up her knitting needles. She knit sweaters for several family members as well as for people in her community, most notably Guardian Angels and Linus blankets. There are many children in the Dominican Republic wearing hats knit by Auntie. Audrey was a lifelong resident of Toronto and member of Queen Street East Presbyterian Church. She will rest at St. John's Norway Cemetery along side her mother and father Edna and William Douglas. Funeral service was held at J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home, 11582 Trafalgar Road, north of Maple Avenue, Georgetown 905-877-3631 on Saturday October 10th, at 2:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations made to the MS Society of Canada would be appreciated. To send expressions of sympathy visit

HILLOCK

In loving memory of our dear parents, grandparents and great-grandparent.

Maurice Charles who passed away May 8, 1967.

Dorothy Louise who passed away October 17, 2010.

Lovingly remembered a dear brother and uncle.

Glennwright Maurice who passed away October 19, 2005.

We think often of days gone by,
When we were all together.
Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard,
But always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.

Forever in our hearts, never to be forgotten, your family
