LINDA & ANNA

THE SEWING CAFE

The Sewing Cafe opened September, 2013. Our core business is teaching sewing, beginner to advanced, we also sell sewing supplies, fabrics, interfacing, zippers, thread & Janome sewing machines. We offer simple alterations, advice on sewing projects, private sewing classes, birthday parties, sewing get-togethers and girls night out, a taste of sewing. It's gratifying to help someone work through a project and have them thrilled with the results, when they first doubted their abilities. People tell us they look forward to their sewing classes, it's a time to relax and forget about all the daily stresses in their lives. We love the small town feel of Halton Hills, our customers are our neighbours and quickly become our friends. We have both been sewing since we were 12 years old. Linda pursued fashion as a career, graduating from Ryerson Fashion Design Program and is currently the director of education for Janome sewing machines. Anna became a Certified Management Accountant (CMA) but has always maintained her love of sewing and quilting. Sewing is a life skill that teaches problem solving and patience, encourages creativity and is fun! Our goal is to inspire our students to connect with their creativity, and leave with a sense of satisfaction and accomplishment. Sewing is our passion and we want to share it with everyone!
