SPORTS

TEAM OF THE WEEK: Dropping just one set out of six matches, the Georgetown Impact earned the gold medals in the under-16 boys' division at the Burlington Blaze Invitational Volleyball Tournament late last month. The Impact rolled through the preliminary round with wins over Etobicoke, two Markham Revolution teams and Burlington, which was the only team to take a set from the eventual champs. Georgetown downed Etobicoke 25-7, 25-10 in the semifinals before dispatching Markham Black 25-13, 25-21 in the final. Team members (from left) are: Coach George Albert, Ethan Crooks, Trevor Wyeld, Mitch Hood, Jacob Martins, Calvin Chong, Nathan Kociancic, Chris Bowen, Ben Watson, Ryan Gibson, Jake Albert, Ali, coach Dave Hood. Raiders take two on weekend

Rookie forward Ashur Elliott scored his first two goals of the season in the second period to make the difference in the Georgetown Raiders' 5-2 victory over the visiting Burlington Cougars Saturday night in an Ontario Junior Hockey League matchup.

The West Division-leading Raiders led 4-0 after 40 minutes and were in control from the start against the Cougars, who were outshot 32-29 in front of about 200 spectators at the Alcott Arena. Josh Dickinson, Jack Jacome and Brendan Jacome also tallied for the 12-5-2 Raiders, tied atop the division standings with the Buffalo Jr. Sabres.

On Friday night, the Raiders trailed 2-1 heading into the third period at the last-place Milton IceHawks before coming together for a 5-2 triumph. Another of Georgetown's promising rookie crop, 17-year-old Bailey Molella, was named first star for his two-goal effort. Dickinson, Brendan Jacome and defender Wyatt Hicken rounded out the scoring.

Next up for Georgetown is a home date with Milton Saturday at the Alcott Arena at 7:30 p.m.

Five Raiders were named to the Eastern Canada Cup All-Star Challenge set to take place Nov. 16-18 in Cornwall, Ont.

Local residents Josh Dickinson and Daniel Hardie will join goalie Andrew Masters on Team Coffey, while 17-year-old blueliners Matthew Cairns and Matthew Thom will suit up for Team Nieuwendyk and athletic trainer Andrew Groombridge will serve as equipment manager for Team Oates.
