SOLD! Brian and Lynn Kennedy, owners of Reeve and Clarke Books in Glen Williams, are the delighted new owners of William Band's watercolour painting, "Books in the Glen." The painting depicts the building as it was in the recent past. The building is the location at which a young Timothy Eaton worked as a clerk before he went on to establish his retail empire. Lynn Kennedy says, "The painting gives us a record of the history of the building. We are thrilled to have the opportunity to hang it in its rightful home, the building it depicts." William Band's show continues at the Williams Mill Gallery until Sunday, Nov.15. It includes paintings of other local buildings and scenes. William Band will be present at the Gallery on Sunday from 2-5 p.m. Submitted photo
