Globe's Anne of Green Gables opens on Nov. 20 at JET

Globe's Anne of Green Gables: The Musical opens Nov. 20 at the John Elliott Theatre.

In 1994, David Ambrose directed Globe's production of Anne of Green Gables for an extended run to sold-out audiences. He has returned after 20 years with Music Director Darryl Burton and Choreographer Cheri Lindsey-Jarvis to direct this year's show.

The show will open with a very special guest— Lucy Maud Montgomery's granddaughter, Kate Butler MacDonald.

Based on the well-known book by L.M. Montgomery, Anne of Green Gables captures the adventures of Anne Shirley, a red-headed and outspoken orphan who, by mistake, comes to live with Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert on their farm on Prince Edward Island. (They Clearly Requested a Boy).

Anne quickly charms the entire town with her passion, warm heart and endless imagination. Her adventures with her schoolmates and how she inevitably wins over a rather reluctant Marilla, create a story that has warmed the hearts of countless fans all over the world.

Anne of Green Gables is Canada's longest running musical featuring beautiful ballads like "I Can't Find the Words," endearing love songs like "Wondrin'" and energetic dance numbers. Anne of Green Gables is a musical that will delight the whole family.

Anne's story is close to home as Lucy Maud Montgomery lived in Norval for nearly 10 years while her husband was minister of the Presbyterian Church. Many of Montgomery's novels and short stories were written in Norval and were undoubtedly inspired by her local surroundings.

Relive this Canadian classic with an evening bursting with memorable music and the enchantment of kindred spirits.

Anne of Green Gables is playing on Nov. 20, 22, 27, 28, 29 at 8 p.m. and Nov. 23 and 29 at 2 p.m. Tickets $16-$27. Buy online at www.globeproductions.ca or call the Box Office, 905-877-3700.

THE GLEN FITNESS STUDIO

After many years working in big, industrial gyms, owner and personal trainer Barb Gill created the Glen Fitness Studio: a fully equipped gym, with quality equipment, in a beautiful century home in the Glen. Boasting stunning views, numerous windows and quality personal trainers, members can feel at home here.

"There are no set programs", says Barb. "We assess each individual's needs and customize a program specific to them. Our clients range in age from 14 years old to 85 years. GFS is safe place for people who have never been in a gym, but who want to feel better. Flexibility, mobility and gaining strength are keys to getting rid of achy joints and nagging pains. You are never too old to start living a better life!"

For those who want a tough program, GFS can also kick some butt. Kelli Irwin, GFS trainer, has lost and kept off 85 pounds for over 14 years. She can relate to weight struggles and will motivate you. Make her success story yours!
