Santa pays a visit—twice

Santa and Mrs. Claus wave to the excited crowd assembled for the Acton Santa Claus Parade on Saturday afternoon. After the Acton parade, which was organized by the Acton Fire Fighters Association, Santa headed down the highway to Georgetown, where he waved to the crowds lining the streets to watch the Georgetown Lions Club's annual nighttime parade.

OPP investigating deaths of Halton Hills firefighter and wife

By Chris Seto
Special to The IFP

Wellington County Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) have begun a criminal investigation into the deaths of Halton Hills firefighter Trevor McNally and his wife Susanne McNally and a fire in their Eden Mills home.

Officers began their investigation after the spouses were removed from their house on Friday morning and pronounced dead upon arrival at hospital. Police were called to the home at 31 Lowrie Lane in Eden Mills, just after 9 a.m. after a report of a fire at the home.

An autopsy was conducted on Sunday at a Hamilton hospital and police have not yet released results.

On Monday morning, an OPP spokesperson said they were unable to comment on whether the fire caused the deaths of the McNallys.

The OPP issued a statement Saturday saying they do not consider there to be a threat to public safety.

Trevor McNally, 44, was a firefighter in Halton Hills while Susanne McNally, 45, worked as a legal assistant.

Fire damage to their home was reportedly confined to the interior. No details have been released by
