Lemon Drop opens in downtown Georgetown

Local resident Julie Dulyea had been running a successful interior design and renovation business called Lemon Drop out of her home for the past four years and recently decided to open a studio downtown Georgetown.

The grand opening of the storefront took place Friday with Town of Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette and members of council attending the 49 Main St. S. location.

Whether it's just one room or an entire home that needs a facelift, Dulyea said she and her team of trades will work to transform renovation ideas into reality with attention to budget top of mind.

Flooring, furniture, trim, crown, area rugs, drapery, home decor and bedding are among its renovation services.

Lemon Drop also specializes in Christmas and holiday decorating.
