

HDSB reaches deal with janitors' union

"Under the new process for bargaining, we had two central tables virtually proceeding at the same time. While the process has been difficult, we achieved a tentative agreement for our DECE, ESP and PSP members. They will vote on this tentative deal in the coming weeks," said ETFO President Sam Hammond.

Halton District School Board is still engaged in ongoing negotiations with these groups regarding local issues.

"Due to the positive relationships the HDSB has with our local unions, the meetings/discussions have been both productive and thoughtful to date," said Stuart Miller, Director of Education for the HDSB in a notice to parents Monday. "We are very hopeful we will have local settlements with all of our remaining union groups. Thank you to all students, staff and parents for their ongoing patience and support."

On Monday, the Halton District School Board announced a tentative local agreement has been reached with Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) - Halton Local 1011, representing more than 300 Halton custodial and maintenance staff.

The tentative deal must be ratified by CUPE Halton Local 1011 members and the Halton District School Board. Terms of the tentative agreement remain confidential until the ratification process is completed.
