Ice storm revisited

As the anniversary of the 2013 ice storm approaches, this undated photo of Barraclough House on Mountain St. in Glen Williams shows it coated in ice after a similar storm. Built in 1901 for John Sykes of Sykes and Ainley Manufacturing Company, it's named for E.Y. Barraclough, manager, then owner of the Glen Woolen Mills Company. This stunning home is a listed heritage property.

A FROSTY MORNING

Despite the warm temperatures this fall, Jack Frost has paid a visit to Halton Hills several times. This photo was taken by Simon Garland on Dec. 12 at Fourth Line and 5 Sideroad.

Christmas is a time for family

As the Member of Provincial Parliament (MPP) for Wellington-Halton Hills, it is my distinct pleasure to wish everyone in our riding the very best at Christmas.

In our home, Christmas is the most special time of the year. It is the time for gathering together with family and friends. It is also the time for giving and sharing the joy, peace and love of the season.

For Christians, it is the time to celebrate and give thanks for the birth of Christ. His teaching and example call us to love and care for one another, not just at Christmas time, but all year round.

I want to thank all who volunteer with our many community service organizations, for their caring efforts to reach out to those in need.

Let's continue to support them, and do whatever we can to ensure that everyone has a Merry Christmas this year.
