Georgetown Chev 'fills a truck' for the food bank

Georgetown Chevrolet held a "Fill the Truck" food drive earlier this month complete with the Georgetown Seniors Band providing live Christmas music and on the day more than 2,000 pounds of non-perishable items were collected.

A thousand pounds were donated by the public and Georgetown Chevrolet matched that total, which was turned over to the Georgetown Bread Basket food bank.

As well, Don Fendley and Graham Baker set up shop in the dealership's showroom with their "Loonie a Week" program for the Bread Basket and raised $2,776, with $1,000 of that total coming from All-Risk Insurance.

Holy Cross Church hosts successful men's health workshop

On Monday, Nov. 23, approximately 40 interested participants were welcomed to an evening Learning Workshop, organized by Theresa Scholz, RN, Holy Cross Parish Nurse, and the church's Health and Wellness Committee.

Dr. Kevin Kwan, a urologist from Halton Healthcare and Clinical Associate Professor at McMaster University, presented up-to-date information related to men's health including prostate cancer.

Based on the positive feedback that was received, attendees were very impressed with the presentation and came away with a wealth of valuable information.
