Georgetown Choir donates to Syrian Refugee Fund

The Georgetown Choral Society donated $1,346 to the Ministerial Association, in care of St. Andrews Church, to help fund their Syrian Refugee initiative.

The money was raised from member donations, (matched by the choir's own funds), and money raised from the audience at the choir's Christmas concert.

"As Georgetown's only 90-voice Community choir, we try to support the fundraising efforts of local community organizations, and we know these funds will be put to good use in assisting refugee families as they relocate to Halton Hills," said GCS President Alyson Arsenault. "We look forward to bringing the joy of song to our next fundraiser at the Old Acton Town Hall "Wine & Roses" evening on February 13th."
