In August, local Royal LePage Meadowtowne sales representatives Amy Flowers (Milton) and Jill Johnson (Georgetown) departed with a group of 60 colleagues to trek to the lost city of Machu Picchu, Peru in support of the Royal LePage Shelter Foundation.

This group of enthusiastic supporters trekked for eight days at high altitude, foregoing running water, electricity and cell service to raise funds for local women's shelters and long-term solutions to end family violence.

Flowers (amy@amyflowers.ca) and Johnson, (jilljohnson@royallepage.ca) raised an impressive $10,489 which was donated to Halton Women's Place. In total, $500,000 was raised by all the challenge participants in support of women's shelters across Canada.

Flowers and Johnson appreciate the generosity of their donors in helping make it easier for women and children in Halton to walk safely away from violence and regain hope for a future without abuse.

The Royal LePage Shelter Foundation is Canada's largest public foundation dedicated exclusively to supporting women's shelters and ending violence against women and children. Through agent commission donations and the fundraising activities of the Royal LePage network, over $20 million has been raised to help provide a safe haven and new beginnings to more than 30,000 women and children each year.
