Georgetown's HALC resumes regular programming

By Florence Riehl

Hillsview Active Living Centre-Georgetown

We are settling in quite nicely to our newly renovated space. It looks absolutely stunning, bright and cheery. Please drop in for a visit and have a look for yourself.

As of this week the Active Living Programs have resumed for their winter session back in the Centre. Seems like most of the participants are happy about that. I guess it makes the old saying "there's no place like home" true.

Thank you to all the members who have renewed their memberships. When you sign in on you will see a general reminder that membership renewals are due. Don't be upset if you have already paid.

If you have not renewed by the end of this week you will find you have been removed from the sign-in page. You will then need to renew in order to have your swipe card reactivated.

I understand there are only a few spots left for the Gordon Stuart Watercolour Workshop on Feb. 6 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

If this tweaks your interest, you will need to register and pay at Reception as soon as possible. The cost is $45 per member or $50 per non-member. You will also receive a list of materials you will need to bring to the class.

This brings up the point that we do have an Art Class at the Centre. They meet every Wednesday afternoon beginning at 1 p.m. You are always welcome to come and take part and share in some new techniques in whatever medium you use.

Heather Beaumont, our volunteer coordinator, is still looking for volunteers and other convenors to assist in fundraising, social and kitchen spots.

If you are a member or not, and are interested in volunteering please call Heather at her new number: 905-873-2601 ext. 2282.

Travel Desk: The new flyers are now available outlining our day trips to the end of June. Drop by and pick one up. You have until Jan. 26 to sign up for our first trip of the new year, a Sweetheart Mystery Tour in February.
