TEAM OF THE WEEK: Georgetown under-14 girls' Impact Black had to settle for runner-up honours following a tense three-set showdown with the Waterdown Raiders in the championship match at a nine-team Ontario Volleyball Association club tournament late last month in Newmarket. Waterdown prevailed in the best-of-3 final 13-25, 25-22, 15-10 over the Impact, which picked up its third OVA medal of the season (two silver, one bronze). Georgetown's under-14s also won an invitational tourney in Barrie. Team members (front, from left) are: Abbey Carney, Sara Wark. Second row: Natalie Luszawski, Hannah Burt, Haven Camillo, Jessica Curtis. Back row: Coach Jeff Farrell, Sophia Sensalone, Aimee Lemire, Danielle Farrell, Paige Henriksen.

Crazy eights at Acton Curling Club

Something that hasn't happened in at least a decade at the Acton Curling Club occurred twice in the space of 10 days recently as teams in separate leagues at the rink were able to pull off the rare 'eight-ender.' On Jan. 15, during the Friday Mixed Social League, the team of (bottom photo, from left) Liz Leslie, Bruce Garvie and Jim Lindsay (with team member Michelle Garvie taking the picture) scored an eight-ender during their match. Then on Jan. 25, the Monday Men's League rink consisting of (top photo, from left) George Henderson, Rob Blackburn, Pat Osborne and Brad Frazer also counted eight points in one end. Henderson said he's asked around the club and can't find anyone who can recall an eight-ender taking place in more than 10 years.
