turned away by four other family doctors due to her age and number of ailments, but was welcomed by Dr. Khanna.

"I always asked her, 'Why don't you retire.

You don't need to work anymore,'" Jaidev added.

"And she would say, 'I love practising and helping people. That's why I work.' Especially helping seniors who had multiple issues. They need reassurance and someone to answer their questions and she would spend a lot of time with them. She had no plans to retire. If her health demanded, she said she would try to scale back her hours, but she was healthy and happy."

Holiday House Tour raises $17,300 for United Way

The 15th-annual United Way Holiday House Tour was a smash hit again this year in Halton Hills as dozens of people visited six homes in the area on Nov. 18 that were decked out for the Christmas season.

According to a press release sent by United Way, the $17,300 raised in Halton Hills will stay in Halton Hills and will assist with the funding of local agencies, which offer programs and services to people of all ages. Those agencies include Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton, Distress Centre North Halton, Food For Life, ROCK, Literacy North Halton, Community Living North Halton, Links2Care and more.

Janet Foster, senior manager of campaign & agency relations for United Way Halton & Hamilton, said this year's house tour was one of the most successful in the fundraiser's history.

legal matters | Process Servers

ASK THE PROFESSIONAL

We work for you.

Q

What is a Process Server? What are my options if I believe I may be served with legal documents?

A

When a person starts a court application, a process server is a third-party who may be hired by a law firm or individual to deliver and ensure court documents are received by the opposing party. If you are cooperative the documents can be served on you at a mutually agreeable time and place. If you are contacted by a process server realize they are not a party to the court proceeding and only a means to ensure proper service has been completed and can be confirmed to the courts, by way of an affidavit of service.
