Man charged after father found stabbed, dog killed

A 30-year-old man has been charged with the attempted murder of his father following an incident in Halton Hills late last month.

Halton Regional Police responded to a call of a domestic disturbance at a residence on Friday, Dec. 29 at approximately 11:45 a.m.

An initial report indicated that a male had been stabbed at that location, and when officers arrived, a male was located outside the home with a number of serious injuries, including stab wounds.

A second male was found inside the home with a serious stab wound and both men were transported to hospital with life-threatening injuries.

A deceased dog was also found inside the residence.

On Tuesday (Jan. 2), a Halton Hills man was formally charged with attempted murder, uttering death threats, killing an animal and failing to comply with recognizance.

The accused was remanded into custody and remains in hospital.

The name of the accused and the location of the incident are not being released to protect the identity of the victim.

The victim and accused are both expected to survive.
