32 Sideroad traffic initiative results in several charges

In response to complaints from area residents regarding speeding and other Highway Traffic Act violations, Halton regional police conducted an enforcement initiative along 32 Sideroad over the weekend.

On Friday alone, district response unit (DRU) officers laid 25 Highway Traffic Act (HTA) charges, issued 16 warnings, arrested one driver for drug possession and took a suspended driver off the road.

During patrols on Saturday in the same area northwest of Acton, an officer stopped an Audi SUV that was clocked travelling 131 km/h in a 60 km/h zone, resulting in stunt driving charges and the impoundment of the vehicle for seven days.

Shortly after, another DRU officer conducted a traffic stop on another vehicle, in which the motorist was charged with driving while under suspension and operating a vehicle without insurance.

A traffic enforcement blitz on 32 Sideroad in the north end of Halton Hills resulted in dozens of charges laid over the weekend, including an SUV traveling 131 km/h in a posted 60 km/h zone. The driver is facing stunt driving charges and will be without this vehicle for a week.
