WHAT'S ON

Wingfield's Progress comes to the Acton Town Hall

On Feb. 17, Canada's own Walt Wingfield comes to our neighbourhood, by special arrangement with the Concerned Residents Coalition (CRC), in a gala fund-raising presentation of Wingfield's Progress at the Acton Town Hall Centre.

Hearty country suppers in one of two neighbouring churches, Knox Presbyterian and St. Alban's Anglican, will precede the theatrical performance, enhancing the country theme of the play. The gala is a fund-raiser for the CRC as it prepares for an OMB hearing on the Hidden Quarry.

Walt's adventures in Wingfield's Progress will have you rolling in the aisles with laughter, laughter about the world we live in where the city dreamers meet the weathered farmers and the two groups find ways to come together to meet community challenges.

Since 1984 "Walt Wingfield", businessman turned farmer, has been regaling audiences, both rural and urban, across Canada and the United States, in the series of seven plays by Dan Needles with more than 4,500 shows logged to date. Renowned and beloved Canadian actor Rod Beattie brings a delightful and memorable assortment of characters to life in these virtuoso one-man shows.

In Wingfield's Progress the spectre of urban development looms on the Seventh Concession, and Walt sounds the alarm. Can he mobilize the neighbourhood to save the rustic splendour of Larkspur? Does Larkspur want to be saved?

the Nylons Gala in 2016, will be a full evening of enjoyment with a country atmosphere. The Acton Town Hall is a heritage gem of a theatre, as are the two 19th century churches, St. Alban's and Knox Presbyterian where traditional country suppers will be served by the congregations.

Both churches are walking distance to the theatre.

Home made pies will be served at intermission, and wine and beer will be available for purchase.

Seating is limited for this once-in-a-lifetime experience. Tickets must be purchased in advance. For information, please contact Linda Sword at 519-853-1896 or lsword@xplor-net.ca. Tickets can be purchased on-line at www.hiddenquarry.ca/wingfield
