Halton Hills selects earn Oshawa minor bantam tourney win

Playing against some of the top-ranked minor development teams in the province, the Halton Hills minor bantam select Thunder emerged victorious from its 12-team division at the Oshawa Church Hockey League last weekend.

The Thunder skated past the Whitby

Wildcats 3-1 in the semifinal before clinching the title with a thrilling 2-1 win over the Ajax Knights in the championship game.

The coaching staff consists of Craig Boland, Kenny Leibel and Stan Gaweda, along with team manager Andy Adams.

Atom selects capture north London tourney

A 2-1 victory over Vaughan Rangers Red in the championship game completed an undefeated weekend for the Halton Hills atom select Thunder at the Byron Optimist Competitive Minor Hockey Tournament.

Ayden Barnes and Owen Chalmers tallied for the Thunder in the shootout, while Ryder Hayes struck for nine goals in six tournament games.
