

IFP welcomes reporter Alexandra Heck

The Georgetown Independent and Free Press newsroom is pleased to welcome reporter Alexandra Heck.

Before joining the IFP, Heck worked as a reporter in Fernie, British Columbia, and has also worked in Niagara Region for Star-Metroland's Grimsby-Lincoln News.

Heck will be covering federal and provincial politics, health and council.

"Alexandra brings to our newsroom a modern sense of storytelling, taking advantage of the various digital platforms available to our readers," said Chris Vernon, managing editor.

Heck is a graduate of Ryerson University's journalism program.

Heck can be reached at aheck@metroland.com.
