Man accused of stealing cash, eggs from farmer's fridge

A Brampton man is accused of stealing dozens of eggs and cash from a Halton Hills farmer.

Halton police said the farmer has a refrigerator at the side of his home where eggs are sold to the public.

It's an honour system, with a cash jar beside the refrigerator where customers put their money.

But on Jan. 16 police say that money jar was stolen and weeks later, on Feb. 4, the same man is suspected of returning to steal nine cartons of eggs from the refrigerator and cash from the jar.

A surveillance camera caught it all on video and police say they have charged a man.

Parminder Virk, 38, of Brampton was arrested Feb. 7 and charged with two counts of theft under $5,000.

Anyone with information is asked to call Const. Paul Wydrzysek, 905-825-4747, ext. 2105 or Peel Crime Stoppers anonymously at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
