

Christ the King Secondary School photo

Some of the members of Christ the King's Jaguar swim team pictured after winning the overall title at last week's inaugural Halton Catholic Athletic Association championship in Milton. Front row: Zach Mattachini, Hannah Robinson, Olivia Crowe, Cayda Fiscian, Marcus Hervatin. Second row: Derek Urie, Audrey Vierya, Elise Malicki, Madison Boyer, Connor Fraser, Adam Filipak, Jacob Deonme. Back row: Ethan Malicki, Justin Siriska, Diena Howe, Jessica Contini, Caroline Holicka, Maria Srebernjak, Callum Fraser, Rachel Vierya, Greg Woods. Absent: Sara Duiabes, Emma Tutt.

Christ the King Jaguars capture inaugural HCAA swim title

At the first-ever Halton Catholic Athletic Association swimming championships at the Milton Sports Centre last week, Christ the King Secondary School qualified for the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association championships.

Jaguar swimmers combined to earn three of the four team titles - junior girls and boys and senior boys - coming up just two points short of the senior girls' division banner.

Several individual and relay swimmers qualified for the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association championships Feb. 27-28 in Windsor with their times in Milton and will also compete in this Thursday's Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference meet in Guelph.

Following are winners of gold medallists for Christ the King at the Halton Catholic Athletic Association championships:

Junior girls' 200 m medley relay (Madison Boyer, Emma Tutt, Diena Howe, Elise Malicki, Kaitland Grech); Maria Srebernjak (senior girls' 50 m freestyle); Zachary Mattachini (junior boys' 50 m backstroke); senior girls' 200 m medley relay (Olivia Crowe, Rachael Vierya, Caroline Holicka, Maria Srebernjak, Hannah Robinson); senior boys' 200 m medley relay (Ethan Malicki, Callum Fraser, Justin Siriska, Derek Urie, Brendan McGill) Ethan Malicki (senior boys' 100 m freestyle); Greg Woods (junior boys' 100 m freestyle); Diena Howe (junior girls' 50 m butterfly); senior girls' 200 m freestyle relay (Maria Srebernjak, Diena Howe, Caroline Holicka, Olivia Crowe, Audrey Vierya, Hannah Robinson); senior boys' 200 m freestyle relay (Brendan McGill, Derek Urie, Callum Fraser, Ethan Malicki, Justin Siriska); Cayda Fiscian (mixed 50 m para freestyle, mixed 100 m para freestyle)

GDHS swimmers race to 19th consecutive Halton title

Dominant and dynastic are a couple of words that come to mind when discussing Georgetown District High School's swim team.

Georgetown again blew the competition out of the McMaster University pool in Hamilton earlier this week, picking up the school's 19th consecutive Halton Secondary School Athletic Association championship banner, and will be looking to pick up its 10th straight Ontario Federation of School Athletics Association title later this month.

As well as taking all of the team titles at the Mac meet, the school had 17 individual gold medallists, 15 runners up, seven relay victories and a relay silver.

Following are winners of gold medallists for GDHS at the HSSAA championships:

Lauren Monhemuis (senior girls' 200 m freestyle, 100 m freestyle); Haydn Bennett (senior boys' 200 m freestyle); junior girls' 200 m medley relay (Olivia Elliott, Daniella Caldwell, Addison Baldwin, Madeleine King, Melissa Tripp, Hannah Tonet); Lexie Cranfield (senior girls' 50 m freestyle); Dan Acton (open boys' 50 m freestyle); Krista Lochert (senior girls' 100 m backstroke, 50 m butterfly); Emma Bissonnette (open girls' 100 m backstroke); Madeleine King (junior girls' 50 m breaststroke, 100 m freestyle); Paige McMillan (senior girls' 100 m breaststroke); senior girls' 200 m medley relay (Krista Lochert, Sanjum Hunjan, Lauren Monhemuis, Lexie Cranfield, Fiona Smith, Megan Brosseau); senior boys' 200 m medley relay (Zach Henderson, Stuart McGuckin, William Brearley, Justin Hume, Patrick Koehler, Haydn Bennett); Matthew Jackson (open boys' 200 m IM); junior girls' 200 m freestyle relay (Madeleine King, Indu Aujla, Grace Melo, Jaylynn Barrows, Olivia Elliott, Lauren Zyskowski); Olivia Elliott (junior girls' 100 m IM); William Brearley (senior boys' 50 m butterfly); senior girls' 200 m freestyle relay (Lexie Cranfield, Annie Elgie, Aiden Weir, Lauren Monhemuis, Megan Brosseau, Paige McMillan); senior boys' 200 m freestyle relay (Thomas Schofield, William Brearley, Haydn Bennett, Justin Hume, Christian Doran, Michael Mann); open boys' 400 m freestyle relay (Liam Berger, Matthew Jackson, Noah Talbot, Dan Acton, Haydn Bennett, Thomas Schofield); Connor Brearley (mixed 50 m breaststroke).

Next up for the GDHS swim team is the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference meet on Thursday, Feb. 15 at the University of Guelph.

The OFSAA championships will take place Feb. 27-28 in Windsor.

REGISTER FOR WINTER PROGRAMS!

On-line registration opens February 15th

haltonhillsgymnastics.com

Get back into the game

Feb 23-25, 2018 - International Centre

Get your tickets to Canada's largest golf & travel show today!

torontogolfshow.com
@torontogolfshow

Experience the latest in fitness, food & wellness.

