Brampton dad missing for days, brother asks for help

A married father of one went missing on Feb. 15 and his family is hoping someone has seen Ajmer Kaler and can help locate him.

The 43-year-old was last seen by a relative walking on Gore Road near Ebenezer Road around 3 p.m. on Feb. 15.

His brother, Jaspal Singh, told the Guardian that no one in his family has seen or heard from him since then.

They reported him missing to police on Feb. 16, but they feel he must still be in the area.

"He doesn't have money," Singh said.

Kaler doesn't have his wallet or a cell-phone with him, and he doesn't drive, Singh said, so he doesn't have a vehicle.

"We have searched all over," his brother said.

Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to call Peel police, 21 Division, at 905-453-2121, ext. 2133.

Ajmer Kaler, 45, has been missing since Feb. 15, 2018 and his family is concerned for his well-being.
