

RAIDERS' PLAYOFF PREVIEW

2017-18 Raiders' statistics

	GP	G	A	PTS	PIM	PPG
81-Jason Smith	49	27	28	55	99	5
88-Andrew Court	53	17	38	55	20	4
18-Brendan D'Agostino	52	22	28	50	41	3
9-Jordan Crocker	51	13	32	45	34	2
71-Jonathan Hampton	45	15	23	38	48	2
7-Andrew Cordssen-David	50	9	24	33	92	0
8-Derek McVey	54	11	21	32	46	4
25-Justin Paul	53	14	16	30	29	2
12-Matt McJannet	44	15	14	29	44	3
4-Zac Elson	47	10	19	29	34	0
20-Austin Cho	52	8	18	26	19	2
14-Zack Dybowski	30	7	18	25	12	3
6-Jacob Payette	52	8	16	24	13	3
44-Josh Nixon	51	4	13	17	66	1
40-Jaden Condotta	54	0	15	15	20	0
23-Mitch Luzar	48	3	8	11	52	0
55-Nicholas Prestia	28	3	6	9	11	0
5-Carson Pearce	38	1	8	9	34	0
16-Dominic Dumas	15	4	3	7	4	1
11-Bailey Molella	19	4	2	6	0	0
GOALTENDERS	GP	MIN	GA	GAA	SAVE PCT.	SO
1-Nathan Torchia	36	2058	101	2.94	.910	4
35-Troy Timpano	7	440	13	1.77	.948	1

Raiders roll for kids' sake

For the past five years, the Georgetown Raiders have been a big supporter of the Big Brothers Big Sisters Halton Bowl for Kids' Sake Mayor's Challenge and the Jr. A team was out in force Sunday at the fundraiser held at Champs Bowl in Milton. More than $10,000 was raised for BBBS mentorship programs in Halton and the Raiders had several teams entered, along with many local businesses and organizations.

Kristin Vanderwater photo

OJHL South/West Conference final standings

Team	GP	W	L	T	OTL	PTS	GF	GA
z-Toronto Patriots	54	40	8	3	3	86	260	144
y-Georgetown	54	36	12	3	3	78	200	110
x-North York	54	37	11	1	5	80	181	110
x-Oakville	54	38	13	2	1	79	195	125
x-Toronto Jr. Can.	54	33	18	1	2	69	202	166
x-Buffalo	54	26	22	0	6	58	173	172
x-St. Michael's	54	24	25	3	2	53	184	197
x-Orangeville	54	22	25	1	6	51	165	184
Mississauga	54	19	29	4	2	44	133	178
Burlington	54	18	28	2	6	44	169	224
Milton	54	4	47	0	3	11	85	276

z — conference regular-season champion; y-division champion
x—qualified for playoffs

Long road ahead for Raiders

Coming up just a goal short of making it to last year's Royal Bank Cup Canadian Jr. A hockey championship tournament in Cobourg, Ont., the Georgetown Raiders will have a much-longer hike ahead this spring if they'd like to achieve their No. 1 goal.

The Ontario Junior Hockey League-champion Raiders traveled to Trenton last May for the four-team Dudley Hewitt Cup Central Canada tourney, losing 2-1 to the host Golden Hawks after beating them for the league title in a thrilling seven-game series just a week or so beforehand.

The 2018 Dudley Hewitt Cup will be hosted by the Superior International Junior Hockey League's Dryden Ice Dogs May 1-5, which is more than 1,700 km away from Georgetown and is best accessed by flying to Winnipeg, Man.

Should the Raiders emerge from the event as champions, there'll be little time to rest before jumping on a plane for Chilliwack, B.C. and the Royal Bank Cup.

But before all that, Georgetown will have some tough tests within its own conference beginning in the first round with the St. Michael's Buzzers.

A second-round matchup against the North York promises to be tough as the Rangers blanked the Raiders 3-0 in Georgetown on Jan. 20.

Longtime Halton rival Oakville is also in the mix, sitting 20th in this week's Canadian Junior Hockey League Top 20 Rankings while another possible opponent for Georgetown, the Toronto Patriots, are sixth.

Spring ball hockey league

ages 6-13 years, no experience necessary

League Runs from April 10 to June 12
at Georgetown Community Church,
271 Mountainview Road, South

$50 each; register

in person at Georgetown Community Church on Monday, March 5th from 7-9pm or online at www.georgetowncommunitychurch.ca

Call 905-877-1374 or email

Emily_harman@can.salvationarmy.org for more information

Giving
Hope
Today