X marks destination for Canadian Tire donation

For the past several years, employees at the Canadian Tire store on Guelph Street in Georgetown have donated a portion of their weekly paycheque to a local charity and the Georgetown Hospital Foundation was the recipient again this year.

A larger-than-usual total of close to $7,600 was raised through payroll deductions.

Funds for the hospital foundation will go toward the Project X digital X-ray machine fundraising campaign.
