Thunder squad fills net for CASHH

Facing a two-man short-handed situation to start the season, members of the local minor atom A Thunder hockey team rebounded to score a win against cancer.

Assistant coach Mike Bahr and manager Larry Fitzgerald underwent treatments for the disease after being diagnosed this past summer, so the team decided to do something on the ice that would show support for the families involved.

Head coach Dave Pfohl asked the players to find sponsors to contribute cash for each goal scored by the Thunder in the regular season. The final tally was 112, translating into $1,770 that has been donated to Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills (CASHH).

"It really hit home," said Pfohl about the diagnoses for Bahr and Fitzgerald, who both have a positive prognosis following treatments.

"We brainstormed and came up with an idea to motivate the kids to score goals and make it meaningful by raising money. Some of the kids really went the extra mile."

Perfect season for CtK junior girls culminates in HCAA court title

Going undefeated through league play this season without dropping a single set, Christ the King's junior girls clinched the inaugural Halton Catholic Athletic Association (HCAA) volleyball championship earlier this week in Burlington.

The Jaguars defeated the Holy Trinity Titans of Oakville two sets to none on Thursday at Sheridan College.

CtK's juniors also won a tournament at St. Thomas Aquinas this season and finished up with a record of 29-2.
