

Halton Hills peewee selects earn tourney title in OT thriller

There was no shortage of drama surrounding the championship victory earned by the Halton Hills peewee select Thunder recently at the 10th-annual Amesbury/Bert Robinson Avalanche Winter Classic Tournament in Toronto.

In Game 1 of the round robin, Noah Kearney tipped in a Kaelon Poynter slap shot with two seconds remaining in regulation in order to tie the North York Black Knights 2-2.

Then in Game 2, Jack Canavan tallied with three seconds left in the third period to grab a 2-2 tie with Etobicoke's Faustina Fury.

Canavan (2), Justin Yeo (2), Matthew Gormley, Evan Ribic, Massimo Scorcio and Holden Grandy scored in a less-stressful 8-0 rout of Mississau-

All hands on deck for minor baseball poker fundraiser

The Halton Hills Minor Baseball Association is going all in with its efforts to raise funds for the addition of new diamonds at Trafalgar Sports Park by holding the Field of Dreams Poker Fundraiser on Saturday, March 24 at the Acton Town Hall.

Tickets are $60 each, which includes tournament entry and a light dinner provided by house league sponsor Hungry Hollow Smokehouse.

They can be purchased at Hungry Hollow, Scorpio's Peace and Polish, Acton Home Hardware or from HHMBA president Larry Fitzgerald at larry.fitzgerald@hhmba.ca.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and the shuffle up and deal commences at 7 p.m.

All proceeds to HHMBA initiatives, primarily the Trafalgar Sports Park Field of Dreams project.

Non-poker players are invited to drop by and make bids on the silent auction segment of the fundraiser.
