Halton Region staff are revisiting the Halton Peel Boundary Area Transportation Study as a result of the province cancelling the GTA West Corridor project. Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette says their major interest is easing pressure in Norval, a notoriously congested four corners where traffic lines up during rush hour. "Our primary interest, of course, is to see the various road improvements identified in the vicinity of Norval advance such as the east-west connection, the Norval West Bypass and the Winston Churchill Boulevard realignment," said Bonnette.

Along with the study was an official plan amendment, called ROPA 43, which sought to freeze lands in order to protect them
