

OPP holding gun amnesty program in April

If you have unwanted guns, ammunition or other weapons, next month would be the time to get rid of them in a proper manner.

Ontario Provincial Police, in collaboration with participating municipal police services, is holding a gun amnesty during the month of April.

The amnesty is for any Ontario resident who wishes to voluntarily surrender unwanted or illegally-owned firearms, weapons, accessories or ammunition.

"The amnesty is a way to provide citizens with a safe way to surrender weapons and enhance public safety. During the amnesty, police will not recommend weapons-related Criminal Code charges that might otherwise apply to people who are turning in these items," stated an OPP press release.

Police note however that no amnesty is offered to people who turn in weapons that have been used in the commission of a crime.

Also, no anonymous submissions will be accepted.

Gun owners in Halton can call the OPP non-emergency number (1-888-310-1122) to arrange for officers to retrieve the weapons, or Halton police at 905-634-1831.

Police will take your unwanted guns this month.

Citizens also can use the OPP website (www.opp.ca/gunamnesty) or the Citizen Self Reporting tool to notify police.

The OPP stresses that no one should bring guns or ammunition directly to police facilities.

"Ontario has seen an increase in break-and-enter incidents where firearms are stolen or targeted by criminals. The OPP and our participating police partners are giving people a safe way to dispose of weapons, imitation weapons and related equipment, accessories and ammunition to reduce the number of guns in their communities," said OPP Commissioner J.V.N. (Vince) Hawkes.
