NOTICE OF STATUTORY PUBLIC MEETING Concerning a Town Initiated Official Plan Amendment Vision Georgetown Secondary Plan

Council for the Town of Halton Hills will hold a Statutory Public Meeting to examine and discuss the Vision Georgetown Secondary Plan pursuant to Section 17 of the Planning Act, R.S.O., 1990. The Vision Georgetown Secondary Plan is a Town initiated Official Plan Amendment for the property bound by 15 Side Road to the North, Eighth Line to the East, 10 Side Road to the South and Trafalgar Road to the West (see map). Members of the public are invited to attend and provide input on the Town of Halton Hills draft Vision Georgetown Secondary Plan at this public meeting hosted by Town Council.

There are two components to a Secondary Plan: 1) maps including a land use plan; and 2) policies to implement the plan. The Draft Secondary Plan provides a range of residential and commercial uses to accommodate approximately 18,000 people and 1,700 jobs for the 10 year period between 2021 and 2031. In addition to the residential and commercial uses, the draft Secondary Plan also includes a Natural Heritage System, a comprehensive transportation system (including active transportation), parks, schools, and a library/community centre to support this new community.

Copies of the draft Secondary Plan will be available for public review beginning on April 17, 2018 in the Town of Halton Hills Planning and Sustainability Department and on the Town's web site at: www.visiongeorgetown.ca.
