Hibernation over for horticulturalists!

The late start to spring has a lot of green thumbs playing catch up in May and the Canadian Tire Garden Centre on Guelph Street in Georgetown is prepared for the Victoria Day long weekend rush. Fresh shipments of flowers are expected through the week and a wide variety of hanging baskets are in stock. The Garden Centre also has two certified horticulturists on staff to answer all your questions. Pictured above are supervisor Alannah Campbell (left) and horticulturist Trish Brown.
