won (6-4, with Entwistle opening the scoring), but it was nice not to have to go back there again with their home record for Game 7. So to get it done at home in front of 10,000 screaming fans was a lot of fun."

With 10 goals and seven assists in 21 playoff starts, Entwistle also emerged as a key faceoff man for Hamilton with a plus-minus of +9.

The third-round draft pick of the Arizona Coyotes in last summer's NHL Draft and the Eastern Conference-champion Bulldogs don't get much of a break as they'll play Friday night in Regina, Sask., against the host Pats in Game 1 of the 100th Memorial Cup, a four-team tournament.

The Pats edged out Hamilton's bid to host this year's centennial event but lost in the opening round of this spring's Western Hockey League post-season and haven't played a game in six weeks.

"We haven't seen too much of (the Pats) and don't know what to expect, but they're going to be well-rested," he said.

"You don't know if that's going to be a good or bad thing because Windsor went out in the first round last year as well and ended up winning the Memorial Cup."

The Bulldogs will also play Monday, May 21 against the WHL rep Swift Current Broncos and on Tuesday, May 22 versus the Quebec league's Acadie-Bathurst Titan to close out the round robin.

CASHh infusion from Twisters

The North Halton Twisters' Girls' Hockey Association had a successful Twister Day back in December and as part of the festivities, a 'Pink-in-the-Rink' fundraiser was held for Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills (CASHh).

The teams raised $3,000 for the non-government-funded organization and recently presented the donation to the CASHh executive.

Plans are already underway for the Twisters to support CASHh again on Twister Day in December.
