

PhotoArt Mayor's Choice Award recipient a repeat winner

For the second time in three years, Milton resident Norm Pietila's knack for getting a nice shot caught the eye of Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette.

Pietila's picture of double-leg amputee Bernie Broad, captain of the United Kingdom team, teeing up his shot during the men's golf tournament at last year's Invictus Games in Toronto was judged by Bonnette as the Mayor's Choice recipient for the PhotoArt community photo competition organized by the Halton Hills Camera Club (HHCC).

The retired chef spent several hours on a sweltering hot day at the St. George's Golf and Country Club to get the shot, named Determination at the 18th hole. He collected $100 and a subscription to PhotoEd Magazine for his efforts.

Town of Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette presents Norm Pietila with the Mayor's Choice award for his shot of a former U.K. soldier playing in the golf competition at last summer's Invictus Games. The annual event is sponsored by the Halton Hills Camera Club.

Pietila, who has been a member of the HHCC for four years, also took top spot in the Mayor's Choice event two years ago with the monochromatic River of Dreams on Sixteen Mile Creek.

He also earned a second-place ribbon and two honourable mentions in other divisions in this year's competition.
