When it comes to healthy snacking, Acton-based chef Courtney Stanley is thinking outside the box - and outside the planet.

Inspired by space food preservation and a passion for farm-to-table meals, Stanley says she wanted to create products from scratch that contained no preservatives or additives but that could last for a long time - which is how her business 70 Below came to fruition.

Stanley is currently working with Andrews' Scenic Acres and using locally sourced ingredients to create three lines of products: the Enthusiast line (ice-cream sandwiches, cheesecake bites, yogurt bark, seasonal fruit chips, apple bark), the Can Stand line (mustards, sauces, jams and jellies) and the Pet Treats line (sweet potato, chicken hearts, chicken livers). She says all her recipes have been created from
