

CROSSING GUARDS HONOURED

The Town of Halton Hills hosted its 15th annual crossing guard appreciation event to honour the school crossing guards who have played an integral role in serving their respective communities.

Middle: Mayor Rick Bonnette invited each one of them up to the podium at the Gellert Community Centre on June 19, to thank them for their service. Among the group was crossing guard Otto Kirchmayr, who is retiring following 20 years of service and Angie Lamoreux, who is the longest serving school crossing guard with 34 years of service. Right: Lamoreux gives Mayor Bonnette a big hug as she accepts her gift.
