OPINION

Do not shop on Canada Day

Dear people of Georgetown; most patriotic town in Canada,

What are you doing this Sunday to celebrate Canada Day? Will you watch the parade in the Glen, celebrate with family and friends around the barbecue and cap it off with fireworks? Or will you be at work, missing out on all the celebrations?

Many people, myself included, will be missing the celebrations this year as all retail stores remain open. You see, whenever Canada Day falls on a Sunday, the holiday is moved to the Monday, so that those who work Monday-to-Friday jobs get a long weekend. That's all well and good, but moving the holiday day to the Monday does not mean that the parades, or the parties, or the fireworks are moved along with it.

So, if the people of Georgetown truly are as patriotic as we claim to be,

Some retail employees will be working and won't get a long weekend holiday this Canada Day.

then I just have one request: do not shop on Canada Day. Do not visit the mall, or the grocery store, the Beer Store or the LCBO. And maybe next time, when Canada Day falls on a Sunday, retailers will realize that it's just not cost-efficient to remain open.
