Books

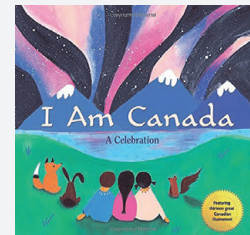

Carson Crosses Canada

By Linda Bailey, illustrator Kass Reich

Whether or not a road trip is on your compass this summer, this wonderful tale provides a cheerful ride across Canada with senior citizen Annie Magruder and her quirky dog, Carson. The pair travels from their home in Tofino British Columbia to Annie's sister's home on the east coast, sharing their province-by-province experience with readers. This is a trip that you'll want to take again and again thanks to the light-hearted story line, lovely illustrations and endearing characters. Ages 4 to 7 – Publisher, Tundra Books – $21.99 hardcover

I Am Canada: A Celebration

By Heather Patterson, illustrator Jon Klassen

This picture book about Canadian childhood features artwork from 13 of Canada's finest children's book illustrators. Heather Patterson's free verse poem "I Am Canada" was originally published in 1996. In this edition that was timed to celebrate Canada 150th anniversary and Scholastic Canada's 60th in 2017, her words are accompanied by illustrations that should make us all proud of the talent Canadians possess. The beautiful and varied art combined with simple text provide a vision of our vast and varied country where children can experience freedom and opportunity. Ages 3 to 7 – Publisher, Scholastic Canada – $19.99 hardcover
