

CCS OFFERS SUPPORT TO THOSE DIAGNOSED WITH CANCER

Fear, anxiety, helplessness and anger are feelings many people experience when faced with a cancer diagnosis.

But knowledge and support is power. The Canadian Cancer Society (CCS) offers support and information for people with cancer and their loved ones.

In 2017-18, $51.4 million was invested in information, programs and services that helped thousands of Canadians. The funds from generous donors helped CCS respond to 43,000 questions by phone and email through the Cancer Information Service (CIS).

Since its inception in 1996, the CIS has answered almost 1.3 million inquiries about cancer.

Cancer can be difficult to understand and coping can be stressful. It can help to talk to someone who can give you current and reliable information.

Cancer information specialists can provide information about:

- . Treatments and side effects
- . Clinical trials
- . Coping with cancer
- . Emotional support services
- . Prevention
- . Help in the community
- . Complementary therapies

The CIS is a national, toll-free service available to cancer patients, caregivers, families and friends, the general public and health-care professionals. The service is available Monday to Friday in English and French. For other languages, an interpreter service is accessible.

To ask questions or find answers, visit cancer.ca or call toll-free at 1-888-939-3333.

COUNSELLING THE NEW HEARING AID USER

The following few tips, if followed correctly, will prolong the benefits and enjoyment of better hearing:

- Do not get the hearing aid wet
- Do not leave the instrument where it is too hot or cold
- Try not to drop the hearing aid
- Do not spray cleaning solution or hair spray on the instrument
- Keep the instrument and batteries out of the reach of small children and especially pets

If any of the above problems do occur, please don't hesitate to call.

POWER OF THE BELIEVER

John 1:12 "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, [even] to them that believe on His name." Ephesians 1:19 "And what is the exceeding greatness of His power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of His mighty power."

The kingdom of God is the kingdom of power and God has made this power available to us as His children. It is this power that makes miracles happen, healing, signs and wonders to manifest. The power is available to those that believe and have received Him as Lord and saviour. Do you want God to intervene in your situation and manifest His power on your behalf? Receive Him as your Lord and saviour and have faith in Him. Today the church is powerless because people have stopped having faith in the power of the word of God and what He can do. The word of God says with God nothing is impossible and nothing shall be impossible to those who believe. Have expectation, pray for His intervention, worship Him, study the bible, evangelise, confess and profess the word and the word shall become flesh to you. You are blessed of the Lord and in the name of the Lord.
