HRPS is warning residents to lock their vehicles and to never leave keys or valuables inside.

POLICE WARN RESIDENTS FOLLOWING STRING OF AUTO THEFTS IN HALTON HILLS

The Halton Regional Police Service is warning residents to lock their vehicles and to remove any valuables left inside, following a recent string of auto thefts in Halton Hills.

"We have been getting a number of reports of theft from vehicles and theft of vehicles," said Halton Regional Police Service (HRPS) Det. Paul Harrower.

Harrower says that since July 11, there have been 10 stolen vehicle reports received, indicating that cars have been taken from driveways during the overnight hours throughout Halton Hills.

He adds that investigators have determined that no make or model is specifically being targeted. However, in 90 per cent of the cases, the owner of the vehicle had left their vehicles unlocked with the ignition keys inside.

One of the latest incidents involved the theft of a pickup truck from a driveway on Raylawn Crescent in Georgetown.

The theft took place overnight between Aug. 7 and Aug. 8, and was reported to police the morning of Aug. 8, Harrower said. The vehicle is described as a dark blue Ram 1500 with Alberta plates.

Harrower says the investigation is still underway and police are seeking potential suspects.

The remaining incidents occurred on Prince Charles Drive, Maple Avenue, Faludon Drive, Joycelyn Crescent, Southwinds Drive, McCullough Crescent, River Drive and Edwin Lane.

Police are asking residents to be cognizant of these occurrences and for anyone with security cameras nearby to be vigilant in checking for suspicious activity. They are also reminding residents to never leave keys inside a parked vehicle.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Const. Randy Sorrell of the 1 District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-878-5511 ext. 2113, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
