"It's about putting students first," Jeanne Gray said. "Any trustee who's worth their salt will always have that as their mantra."

HALTON HILLS TRUSTEE JEANNE GRAY RUNNING FOR RE-ELECTION

VERONICA APPIA
vappia@metroland.com

Halton District School Board trustee Jeanne Gray has lived in Halton Hills for over three decades.

But every day of her 32-year career, she would wake up and drive out of the town to Peel Region, where she worked as an educator, then as a principal, with the Peel District School Board.

Now, to be able to serve her own community in Halton Hills has been both refreshing and rewarding, she says.

Gray was elected as the trustee for Halton Hills in 2014, following her decades-long career in education. She retired in June of that year, but says she knew she was not quite done working yet.

Enthusiastic about continuing to help the lives of
