ROXY COFFEE COOKBOOKS RAISE OVER $3,000 FOR ACTON FOODSHARE

ALEXANDRA HECK

It's been over three months since Roxy Coffee bid farewell to Acton and closed its doors, but the legacy lives on.

Former owners of the non-profit café sold cookbooks outlining classic recipes they served up over the years and donated the proceeds of the cookbooks to Acton Foodshare.

The three ladies got together to present a cheque for $3,078 to the food bank.

"We're very grateful," said Arlene Humphreys, of the Acton-based food bank. "Other than the grant from the region, we rely on community donations."

The donation buys the
