HDSB HOSTING HUMAN RIGHTS SYMPOSIUM IN DECEMBER

The Halton District School Board will be hosting a human rights symposium in December, in an effort to engage parents and community partners in discussions about Indigenous rights.

The symposium will be held on Dec. 4 at Holiday Inn Burlington Hotel & Conference Centre (3063 South Service Rd., Burlington), and will feature talks by Canadian singer-songwriter Susan Aglukark, as well as CBC broadcaster Jesse Wente.

"The Halton District School Board recognizes the importance of engaging in vital conversations to challenge our thinking," says Stuart Miller, director of education for the Halton District School Board. "The Human Rights Symposium provides an opportunity for community partners to gather together to examine important issues connected with implementing the National Truth & Reconciliation Calls to Action."

Registration for the event is now open. For further information or for help registering, email symposium@hdsb.ca.
