MCKENZIE-SMITH BENNETT P.S. CREATES INDIGENOUS WALL MURAL

VERONICA APPIA
vappia@metroland.com

Students at McKenzie-Smith Bennett Public School have been working alongside Indigenous artist Michael Cywink to show that a picture really does speak a thousand words.

Cywink, along with his assistant Wes Brewer, visited the Acton school for two weeks, joining forces with the students to design and create a colourful hallway mural.

The mural incorporates the seven grandfather teachings as well as actions related to truth and reconciliation, including honouring and respecting the land.

The 50-hour project was funded in part by the Ontario Arts Council
